CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR CITY MOBILITY AND SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE

The City of Clearwater will establish a stakeholder steering committee to guide “Clearwater Greenprint,” a citywide mobility and sustainability vision and framework for action.

CLEARWATER, Fla. – The City of Clearwater is seeking applicants for a stakeholder steering committee to help guide Clearwater Greenprint, an initiative to support long-term planning that implements sustainable programs and practices citywide. Applications are due by July 14, 4:30 p.m.

The committee, to be established by City Council, will set the strategic direction, vision and policies for community mobility and sustainability in Clearwater over the next 20 years. The Clearwater Greenprint initiative will guide policy changes in Clearwater’s Comprehensive Plan and Community Development Code.

Committee membership should consist of people who collectively represent different perspectives, experiences and cultures of the people who live and work in Clearwater, are passionate about improving quality of life in the city, and have the ability to consider long-term possibilities.

Members will participate in seven committee meetings from August 2010 through early February 2011. Members will also participate in two interactive open house events to be held in September 2010 and January 2011.

Applications are available on the City’s website at www.myclearwater.com/greenprint, by calling Lauren Matzke, AICP, Project Manager, at 562-4547 or by e-mailing lauren.matzke@myclearwater.com.
