- Recognized by the Mutual of America Foundation for the exemplary community partnership between the YWCA and the City of Clearwater.
- Worked with the State Attorney's office to expand the community prosecution program, which provides additional resources and options for dealing with juvenile crime. This program was implemented in the Skycrest Neighborhood.
- Reorganized the Police Department's Traffic Section to implement an enhanced traffic enforcement and education program on a citywide basis.
- Began operations at the Downtown Bicycle Team substation to enhance patrol visibility and operations in the downtown area.
- Conducted advanced training programs to position the police department for mandatory, federal compliance with the National Incident Management System (NIMS).
- Celebrated 22 years of community policing with the rededication of the renovated North Greenwood Neighborhood Patrol Substation.

Oscar "Sport" McCullom was one of the first African-American police officers in Clearwater.
