• I understand that volunteering for the Clearwater Parks & Recreation Department may require or include a criminal background check, driver's license check or providing of other identification or certifications.

- (Due to the sensitive nature of juvenile records, the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office will only release background check information to the individual or parent. If your child is under the age of 18 you will need to visit the Pinellas County Sheriff's Records Department. You may either bring the minor with an ID stating their birth date or visit yourself with their original birth certificate. Please return a copy of this record to our offices for processing. You may contact them with any questions at 582-6281.)
